THE MONEYLESS MAN.

BY HENRY T. STANTON.

Is there no secret place on the face of the earth, where charity dwelleth, where virtue hath hidden? Where bosoms in mercy and kindness will heave, And the poor and the wretched shall "ask and receive?" Is there no place on earth where a knock

Will bring a kind angel to open the door? Ah! search the wide world wherever you can. There is no open door for a moneyless man.

Go look in your halls, where the chandelier's

Drives off with its splendor the darkness of night. Where the rich hanging velvet in shadowy halls, Sweeps gracefully down with its trimming of gold, And the mirrors of silver take on and renew. In long lighted vistas the wondrous view—

Go there, in your patches, and find, if you can. A welcome tug smile for a moneyless man.

Go look in your church of the cloud-reaching spire, Which gives back to the sun its same look of red fire, Where the arches and columns are gorgeous within, And the walls are as pure as a soul without sin; Go down the long aisle—see the rich and the great, In the pomp and the pride of their worldly estate; Walk down in your patches, and find, if you can.

CHALDEE CHRONICLE.
TRANSLATED FROM THE ORIGINAL BY "HOOK."

CHAPTER I.

1. And it came to pass in the year of jubilee, the eighty-third, that there arose a murmur in the land;

2. And the people cried out unto their rulers, saying: Make unto us gods and idols, for of this man George [Washington] and his laws, we will cast them from us.

3. Then Abraham, called Lincoln, gathered the people together, and said unto them,

4. O men of Israel, ye have cried unto me for idols; now, therefore, let every man bring unto me his manservant, his maid servant, and all his bondsmen;

5. And I will offer them at the altar of Freedom; and these shall be your idols.

6. Now when the people of the North heard this they rejoiced and were exceedingly glad, for they had nothing to lose; and they gave praise unto Abraham.

7. But when the people of the South heard these things they were cast down, and their hearts were troubled, for they were exceedingly rich in slaves and bondsmen.

8. And they took counsel together, saying: Wherefore should we do sacrifice for those which are against us?

9. And of a surety were not our slaves given unto us by the law, for an inheritance forever?

10. Therefore we will have none of Abraham and his offering. We will scoff at him, and spit upon him; and will withdraw ourselves from him, and we will appoint rulers in his stead.

11. Now when Abraham heard this he was very wrath, and he called his people together, saying unto them:

12. Behold what manner of men are these, that do rebel in their hearts, and will not do sacrifice with you?

13. Therefore, let every man put on his sword and buckler, and let us go out against them, and let us smite them, even unto the shedding of blood.

14. And for the space of five years the war raged fierce in the land, and the smiting was sore; and this was because of the children of Ham.

15. And the men that were slain were like the sands on the sea-shore, so that no man could number them; and the river did run with blood.

16. And the Lord was angered at his people, and his face was hid from them;

17. And he suffered the people of the North to triumph over the people of the South; and there was tribulation in the land.

18. Then there came one of the South with bloody hand, who did smite Abraham, even unto the taking away of life.

19. And there was wailing and lamentation among the people, who cried out, Abraham is gone, now who shall reign over us?

20. And they bethought them of one Andrew, surnamed Johnson, and they said, Surely he shall reign over, for doth he not hate our enemies, and will he not plague them, even unto the going down of the sun.

21. And they raised up Andrew to rule over them. But Andrew repented him of his sins, and he feared to persecute the people of the South, for his heart was softened and he turned him unto the Lord.

22. And the people cried out with a loud voice, Away with him, away with him, for he will deliver us into the hand of the enemy, and they will prevail over us.

23. And they cast out Andrew, and clamored loudly, saying: Give us a king to rule over us, for these men betray us.

24. And He said in his wrath, O ye wicked and perverse generation, ye have despised the rulers I have given ye.

25. And now do ye cry unto me for a king! lo, now will I raise up an instrument of my wrath against you.

26. Verily, verily, I say unto you, and a king ye shall have, and he shall rule you with a rod of iron, so that there shall be woe in the land.

27. And he raised up unto them one Hiram, the son of Jesse, whose surname was Grant.

28. And the fear of him was in every man's heart, for he was quick to shed blood; and he feared not God, neither regarded he man.

29. And the people all feared him, from the least unto the greatest, for he was a terror unto his own household.

30. About this time came one preaching and saying: Repent ye, for the kingdom is at hand; for he that is to be king will judge every man according to his power.

31. And he that owns bonds shall own bonds still, and he that pays taxes shall pay even yet greater taxes; therefore, repent ye of the words ye have spoken against the king.

32. And all these things happened, even as it is written, so happened they. And so ended the first chapter.

A bittern was killed in Clark county last week. This bird is rarely seen in this part of the country.

Col. Trine, of this State, has been appointed Consul to St. Thomas.

The farmers of Logan county have resolved to organize a farmers' club.

The Apoclos Times is the title of a handsome religious weekly just started at Lexington. It is devoted to the interests of the Christian denomination, and is edited by Elders M. E. Lard, R. Graham, W. P. Hoppson, L. B. Wilkes, and J. W. McGarvey. Success to it.

Gen. John C. Breckinridge arrived in Harrodsburg Friday, and met with a warm reception from the citizens of that town. He is the guest of Ex Gov. Magoffin.

Joseph Watts, one of the oldest and most respectable citizens of Smithland, died last week.

The Glasgow, Ky., Times says the pugnacious attorneys of a neighboring county seat have worn out the first and second volumes of Bush's Kentucky Reports by pounding each other over the head with them.

General Speed S. Fry has been appointed Supervisor of Internal Revenue in this State, in place of D. S. Goodloe.

At a recent election Paris decided to grant liquor licenses.

A lead mine has been found on the lands of Thomas Tyres on Licking river. A specimen of the ore which was taken to Sardis and smelted, produced a fine article of pure lead.

The bridge across the Licking at Butler, is to be begun in a short time.

The Paris and Richmond Railroad Company has been organized.

Col. S. C. Churchill has resigned his position on the State Central Committee.

Jacob Sageser, the oldest citizen of Bourbon, died yesterday, aged 91 years, 1 month and 4 days.

Mr. A. C. Smoot, of Utah, has paid $2,000 cash to R. W. Scott, of Franklin, for 100 head of sheep.

The Lexington Observer and Reporter says that it is quite evident that the "judgment" inflicted on the negro, Martin clay, did not have the anticipated effect, for accounts of further depredation come in daily. Mr. Wm. Jones, living on the Winchester pike about two miles from the city. Thinks he put twelve buckshot into a larkey the other night, whom he caught in his pig pen, and who was not twenty steps off when he fired at him. The darkey made good his escape nevertheless.

The boys are out again with their slings, and shot, and gravel, and bullets to charge the same with. Our city authorities would do well to put a stop to the same, as some one will get his eye knocked out by them.

The straps buckled round the dogs' mouths, are no preventive to their biting, if they have a mind to do so. A complete muzzle is the thing. Some are without any shield.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—James R. Curry, sold his lot on corner of Pike and Miller streets, to J. H. Shawhan, for two thousand dollars.

C. T. Wilson sold to Achilles Perrin, a lot on the north extension of Miller street, at ten dollars per foot. Also one to Walton Kerrick, at the same price.

John S. Day sold to F. G. Ashbrook his undivided half of the store room now occupied by D. W. Jewett, for the sum of two thousand dollars, also to H. D. Frisbie, one undivided half of vacant lot, back of said store, for one hundred and fifty dollars.

Mr. Alfred Day will sell his farm and personal property on the 30th inst. He says in his advertisement that this sale is for the benefit of his creditors and invites them to come to his sale and help themselves to anything he has.

Alex. McClure, who was fined in the Criminal Court for maliciously stabbing a negro, made an attempt last Monday to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a razor, he made a ghastly incision in the neighborhood of his jugular, but our information is that the wound will not be prove fatal.

We were pleased to see so many people from a distance, at our last County Court. We also had a very large representation from the county. This is as it should be. Every person who has pride for his county should make it a point to attend these monthly reunions. It gives tone and character to you as a people. Let the second Monday in May—"Steed horse" day—be a rousing meeting of the yeomanry of old Harrison.

On last Tuesday afternoon, Nellie B. Williamson, while playing on the balustrade, in her father's store, on Pike street, fell to the first floor, severely injuring her arm and side, and contusing her forehead. This should be another warning to parents, to keep their children from "skylarking" on the stairway.

Dispatches have been received in New York from Savannah, which leads friends of the Cuban revolution there to believe that General J. B. Steedman has been successful in landing in Cuba with a picked force of men. The expedition has been in preparation for a number of months. Steedman himself spent two weeks in Havana, and during the latter part of the time was so far under arrest as to be ordered quietly by the Captain General to report to him daily. The first rendezvous of his party was on one of the islands near New Orleans. When Admiral Hoff received his first orders, the headquarters of the expedition were changed to a point on the Florida coast. A blockade runner, captured from the rebels in the late war, was obtained, and the belief is that nearly a thousand men, well supplied with arms and thoroughly accustomed to them, have been landed. The Cuban leaders have been fully acquainted with Steedman's movements for some time. Information has been received that bodies of men are nightly drilling in New York whose ultimate destination is Cuba, though they will probably not leave direct from that city.

The New York World says that Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe is not about to leave her Florida plantation because of "rebel" persecution, having, indeed, borne her testimony to the good will and warm-heartedness of her neighbors; neither is it that Uncle Tom has been found so incorrigibly idle as to render it impossible to make both ends meet by his labor on the place, Uncle Tom working, indeed, very well in Madam's orange grove, carpet-bag politicians being therefrom denied; but the truth is, that Mrs. Stowe bought the land at a tax sale—a military necessity tax sale—and, as this does not hold good in law, the rightful owner is to come into his own. And Mrs. S. to receive the dollar and a half paid at the tax sale.

There is a report about Lexington that the negro who stole the hog last week and fell dead under the weight of it while carrying it off is not truly dead yet. It seems that he is now alive and kicking. The story goes that he fell in a fit and lay unconscious for some thirty hours, and that after his wife took the body she, knowing his disease, refused to have him buried, and sure enough he came to life again and is now all right.

It is removed in Knoxville, Tenn., that a company of forty men have been recruited in that place, who are going to Cuba to assist the rebels in their efforts to throw off the yoke of Spain. A fitting work for "bill" East Tennesseans.

A. Williamson, on Pike street, has purchased two representatives of his business, one a very large boat, the other a very handsome Gold Hat. They reflect great credit upon the artist, Mr. C. T. Forbistall, of Cincinnati, for their beauty and finish. Nothing impresses the stranger quicker on visiting a town or city than handsome signs and show windows. The "Stone Front" can boast of the finest windows in Kentucky, and Williamson, the handsomest signs, and prettiest gaiter shoes.

The continued heavy rains, in this section, have very materially interfered with farming operations. Our farmers will be set back two weeks later in their planting than they were last year.

A drunken and disgraceful fight, occurred in our beautiful little city on last Sunday evening. Can our people find some other day than Sunday to get drunk? We hope so.

It is reported that the Grand Jury in the United States District Court of St. Louis has indicted General Burbridge, of Kentucky, for bribery. The particulars have not transpired. General Burbridge was in St. Louis some weeks since as an agent of the Revenue Department.

The resignation of Hon. John P. Hale as Minister to Spain, has been received at the State Department, and his successor will soon be confirmed.

Ex-president Johnson spoke to about five thousand persons, Thursday afternoon, from a stand at the Overton Hotel, Memphis. His speech was but a repetition of those made at Knoxville and Nashville, but it was well received and heartily applauded.

THE SUBSCRIBERS.—The subscribers to the Cynthiana and Cave Spring turnpike road are hereby notified that there will be a meeting held for the election of managers, at the Court House in Cynthiana, on Saturday, May 1st, at 11 o'clock. All subscribers who, as required by law, have paid five dollars, on each hundred of their subscription, to H. Cox, (Commissioner,) on or before that day, will be entitled to a vote, for each share subscribed.

Additional subscriptions will be received to the Capital Stock of said road until that day, by H. Cox and Wm. Smith, or by either of them.

J. H. DILLS, H. COX, WM. SMITH, WM. BUZZARD, J. H. MUSSELMAN.

On a tombstone in an Edinburgh churchyard is the following epitaph, which for force and pathos exceeds everything we have seen: "Here lies I, Martin Englebrodte. Have mercy on my soul, Lord God. As I would do, were I Lord God. And ye were Martin Englebrodte." There is an epitaph in Mount Auburn, which expresses a volume in four words:

"She was so pleasant."

In another churchyard the friends of the departed expressed their respect for his memory by having carved on his tombstone.

"He was a good egg."

A wag seeing the same, wrote underneath as follows:

Tread lightly over this nest, we beg. Or else, perhaps, you'll smash the egg.

Notwithstanding the cry of hard times among people who do not want to pay their debts, a large amount of money changed hands last Monday in paying up old scores. Every one should pay his debts.

The Prussian Authorities are now examining the fulminating liquid rifle—the invention of one Nuiosier—which can be fired four and twenty times a minute. It is said to be a most formidable instrument of death, equal, if not superior to the Chassepot or the needle gun.

Daniel Webster was right when he remarked of the press: "Small is the sum required to patronize a newspaper; amply rewarded its patron, I care not how humble and unpretending the gazette he takes. It is next to impossible to fill a printed sheet without putting into it something that is worth the subscription price."

[For the Cynthiana News.]

"LITTLE ELIA."

RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO MR. AND MRS. GARDEN, OF FAYETTE.

When the sun with regal splendor, Slinketh to his rest, And the dusky shades of evening, Veil the glowing West; Sitting in the gloaming, merrily Ope's her treasures rare, And I see the face of Elia, Angel Elia, there.

Dewy rose-buds are not sweeter, Lilies not more fair, Than this blue-eyed angel vision; With her golden hair Flating round her dimpled shoulders, Like a halo bright, And her snowy brow encircled With a crown of light.

Gone from us our precious treasure, Gone our blossom sweet, Vain, we list to hear the music Of her coming feet. Where the ever-green myrtle blossoms, And the daisy peeps, Little Elia, darling Elia, Soitly, sweetly sleeps.

Elia! Elia! Thon hast been sleeping long, Elia! Elia! Hushed is thy silver song.

ANNIE H. EDWARDS, Harmony Hill, Bourbon county, Ky.
